

Impact

Is the Metaverse something entirely disconnected from reality & unable to influence it, is it a part of reality with direct influence, or an adjunct with defined points of influence?

Disconnected

Adjunct

Part of reality

Modality

Is the Metaverse ubiquitous, accessible at any time from anywhere via many device types, or is it situational, constraining the access to one context or device type?

Ubiquitous

Situational

Identity

Are people entering the Metaverse as a representation of themselves in the current context or as an exploration of themselves, or anonymous and detached from any context?

Representation Exploration Anonymous

Implementation

Is the Metaverse a collection of separate applications, is it a protocol to standardize access to similar experiences or it integrating all experiences in a single platform?

Application Protocol Platform

Purpose

Is the Metaverse narrative actionable, describing a tangible and achievable Metaverse with clear benefits, or is it inspirational, describing broad desires and visions?
